Mission Statement

The purpose of the Saginaw Chippewa Tribe of Michigan's Nami Migizi Nangwiihgan (NMN) Services is to assist those affected by domestic violence, sexual assault, trafficking and/or stalking in finding their path without abuse.

Individuals will be assessed by NMN staff to identify needs in support of our mission. Those needs are addressed by NMN staff and also by connecting with other local organizations. We are dedicated to providing services that ensure the physical, mental, spiritual and emotional well being of anyone victimized by violence. In the quest to achieve balance and independence, we focus treatment on healing, moving beyond through establishing a support network of both services and resources.

Support Services

For many people, finding the right resources and services they need can be complex and confusing. Our case manager and support service staff can assist you with connecting with the appropriate community resources to meet your changing needs.

Sexual Assault Services

Presence of an advocate is available 24/7 by contacting Tribal Dispatch and requesting the on-call worker. SANE trained nurses are available to perform medical examinations on victims to assist with evidence collection. Individual therapy is provided to assist survivors.

Safety Planning

Our staff is dedicated to assisting individuals in preparing to leave violent situations. Knowledge is shared on how to safely exit a violent relationship is essential support to victims whose quest it is to become survivors. Leaving is never an easy decision, so allow us to help you feel more prepared with a comprehensive safety plan before you leave.

Counseling

Individual and/or group counseling is available for native and non-native victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking to help cope with the abuse they are facing. Support groups are offered and all counseling is voluntary.

Education and Outreach

NMN staff are available to provide education about domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking to providers and community groups. Presentations provided are based upon group needs.

Batterer

Intervention Group

Groups to teach Batterers new skills that are in support of non-violent ways to interact with their partners and manage emotions.
