

Residential Fire Safety Institute

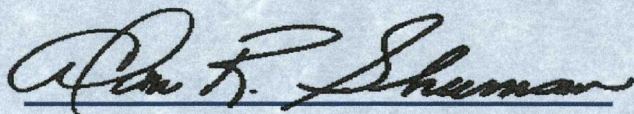

2007 Life Safety Achievement Award

This award is hereby bestowed upon the

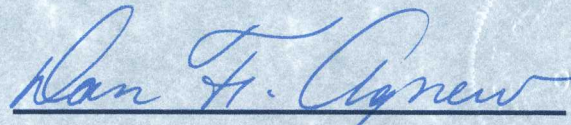

Saginaw Chippewa Tribe Fire Department

in recognition of its work to keep its community free of deaths from fire in the year 2007.

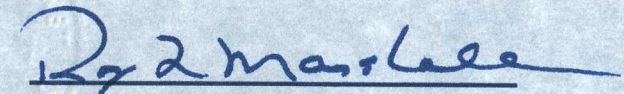

Awarded this 1st day of October 2008.

Alan R. Shuman, President
National Association of State Fire Marshals

Dan F. Agnew, President & CEO
Grinnell Mutual Reinsurance Co.

Roy L. Marshall
Director, Residential Fire Safety Institute

The Residential Fire Safety Institute (RFSI) is a public interest group dedicated to reducing residential fire deaths and injuries through the advocacy of fire sprinklers, smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and teaching fire-safe behavior.
The year 2007 Life Safety Achievement award was made possible by a grant from the Grinnell Mutual Reinsurance Company, Grinnell, IA.