Sculpture by: Ben Hinmon

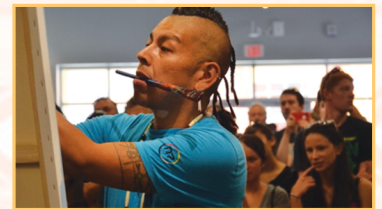

Ben A. Hinmon, Kingfisher has been carving stone, antler and wood for more than twenty-five years. His works are based in his strong cultural ties to his woodland Anishinabe heritage and reflect his belief that "All things are connected." His unique style and vision make his work an important statement and reflection of contemporary Anishinabe life.

Painting by: Bunky Echo-Hawk

Live Art Performance: Bunky Echo-Hawk performs in venues all over the country. His live art performance brings a fresh, interactive, culturally and socially relevant art experience to his audiences. The audience conceptualizes the idea, and Bunky paints it on the spot for them.
