Tuesday, Nov. 13, 2018

5:30 - 7 p.m. | Seventh Generation

Healthy Start Program presents the Saginaw Chippewa Community Baby Prom

It's better than any high school prom that has ever existed!
For babies. Family members may dress up too!

Event Preparation

7th Generation is offering applique/ribbon assistance to your child's prom attire. Stop in anytime or on sewing nights Nov. 1/Nov. 8 (5 - 8 p.m.)

- Formal attire is suggested; girls can dress like princesses or fairies.
- Everyone gets to be the Prom Queen/King and have a photo taken. Photos by Summer Moon Photography.
- Selfie booth will be available.
- Baby Dance "Binoojiinhsi-zhigaa" to tunes spun by JVSound including baby classics, such as "The Chicken Dance," "The Hokey Pokey" and some tribal dances.
- Sing-along with Nookomis Isabelle in the Anishinabe language.
- Craft tables will include corsage making and cedar necklace making
