Guest Speaker: Barbara Nolan

Nesdotmookiid (Causing of Language Understanding)

Barbara Nolan is grateful to have survived the attempts by Canada's Indian residential schools system to take her aNishnaabe language from her. As a vibrant first-speaker of aNishnaabemwin, she has spent several decades working with a variety of organizations to revitalize our language.

She delivers presentations on Community Wellness that addresses the impacts of the Indian Residential School System including Healing and Laughter Workshops.

Barbara is a proud Nishnaabe-kew, formerly from Wikwe-mikong Unceded Indian Reserve, who now resides in Garden River First Nation.
