

Fall 2021 YOUTH SUMMIT

In recognition of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribal Holiday, Anishinaabeg Giizgigad (Michigan Indian Day)

Friday, Sept. 24, 2021

8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. | Ziibiwing Cultural Center

Panels of educators from a variety of institutions and backgrounds will be available to provide information about the education profession and pathways to higher educational opportunities for Indigenous students.

- Open to Students in grades 6-12 who are SCIT Members and community.
- Lunch will be provided.
- Participants are required to wear masks and social distance.
- This event is co-hosted by the SCIT Youth Council and the SCIT Explore Education project funded by a grant from the Michigan Department of Education's Future Proud Michigan Educators initiative.
- School administrators have been notified of the summit and asked to excuse absences of participating students. Attendance will be taken at the event and a list of attendees will be sent to the schools.

For more information, please contact:

Niki Henry, Curriculum Instructional Coordinator

Phone: 989.775.4525 | Email: NiHenry@sagchip.org

CMU
CENTRAL MICHIGAN
UNIVERSITY

Registration required

- Open to first 50 who register
- First come, first serve basis.
- A virtual option will be available to students who prefer not to attend in-person or are in quarantine or isolation due to COVID. A zoom link will be provided to participants who register for the remote session.

To register, go to:

<https://bit.ly/39cbOsX>

Or scan this QR code

Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan

"Working Together for Our Future"

7500 Soaring Eagle Blvd.
Mount Pleasant, MI 48858
989-775-4000
www.sagchip.org