We're All IndigiNerds Now! Native Americans In Popular Culture

For more than four hundred years, Native and Indigenous people have played a significant role in global popular culture. From the earliest portrayals of the "Noble Savage" through the villainous "Red Devil", the images and representations of Native American and North American Indigenous Peoples have been used to shape policy and perpetuate efforts of genocide and ethnocide throughout North America.

▶ Attendees will receive a copy of one of the author's books.
