

ANISHINABEK FAMILY STORYTELLING & DINNER
JANUARY 28, 2017 • 3PM-7PM

Featured Storytellers:
Larry "Pun" Plamondon and Shirley Brauker

3pm-5pm Featured Storytellers
5pm-6pm Dinner catered by Nbakade
6pm-7pm Community Storytellers

Shirley M. Brauker
(Go-gee-zis muckwa/Moon Bear)
Little River Band of Odawa
Painter, Pottery, Sketch Artist and Author
Teacher of pottery, Anishinabe language, wilderness emergency survival,
and traditional storytelling

Larry "Pun" Plamondon
(Two Hawks)
Grand River Band of Odawa-Turtle Clan
Playwright, Journalist, Traditional Dancer,
Oral Historian and Master Storyteller

FREE & OPEN to the PUBLIC

United States Department of Agriculture
National Institute of Food and Agriculture

For more information call 989.775.4750

Supported by a grant from the USDA, National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA), Connecting with the Community Grant, provided to the Saginaw Chippewa Tribal College

ZIIBIWING CENTER
of Anishinabe Culture & Lifeways

THE MIDWEST'S PREMIER AMERICAN INDIAN MUSEUM
6650 East Broadway, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan 48858
989.775.4750 • www.sagchip.org/ziibiwing