Join staff from MILS to learn about the estate planning services available. This free program is available to those who make up to 500% of the poverty and eligibility guidelines, making estate planning accessible to more people.

Unable to make it, but still interested? MILS can assist via Zoom or over the phone! Please call MILS at (231) 947-0122 to schedule a time for assistance with your estate plan.

MILS also offers services statewide to income - eligible individuals. Some areas include loss of essential services support, criminal expungement, work to preserve Indian families, and other community legal services. Learn more about our services at www.mils3.org.
