About Little Battle Axe

21 year old Robert "Little Battle Axe" Ornelas of Anaheim, Calif. has taken the gospel of Jesus Christ into the hoods, jails, prisons, elementary schools, middle schools, high schools, colleges, night clubs, Native American Indian Tribes, youth correction facilities and prisons since the age of 8 years old as an evangelist and christian hip-hop artist.

At the age of 9, Little Battle Axe was asked to record and be apart of the christian hip-hop underground single "Are You With Me?" off of the S.O.G. Crew's first underground album "We Rise to Get Down," with his father Battle Axe Sr. the founder and front man of the "Sons of God Crew" out of Anaheim, Calif. For the next eight years, Little Battle Axe toured and traveled the country, encouraging young people of all ages as the hype man for the Christian hip-hop group the "Sons Of God Crew."

The Vision

The vision has, and always will be, Jesus Christ. Robert Little Battle Axe Ornelas continues to travel the country, ministering and reaching the broken hearted and lost. He plans to continue ministering full time. Hip-hop will always be his number one passion, and he will continue to combine gospel and hip-hop. The mission is to bring souls to Jesus Christ.
