OUTDOOR MOVIE & STAR STORIES WITH PUN PLAMONDON JULY 29 • 9PM-11PM

FREE EVENT
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Larry "Pun" Plamondon, also known as "Two Hawks," is a member of the Grand River Band of Odawa-Turtle Clan. He is a playwright, journalist, traditional dancer, oral historian and Master Storyteller.

Plamondon is also the narrator of the planetarium show "Stories My Ancestors Told: Sky Legends of the Three Fires" at the Kalamazoo Valley Museum.

In addition, Pun is the author of LOST FROM THE OTTAWA: The Story of the Journey Back, the riveting autobiographic journey of his fascinating life.

We are very fortunate and delighted to bring Pun Plamondon to share with us some of the star stories of the Anishinabek. Join us for a unique and enjoyable evening with a movie under the stars and traditional Native American storytelling. For more information call 989.775.4750.
