Artist-in-Residence

Anishinaabe Artist, Naawikwegiizhig (Adam Avery) is a member of the historic Saginaw, Swan Creek and Black River Bands, and a direct descendant of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan. Growing up in the Red Arrow Family, he was immersed in the art of black ash basket making. Throughout his life he has gained knowledge of woodland style cultural arts, and wants to share these values and teachings gifted to him by his family with future generations.
