News Release

FEMA Disaster Recovery Center Hours Will Change Effective Immediately

MIDLAND, Mich. – Hours at the Disaster Recovery Centers (DRCs) in Isabella and Midland counties will change effective immediately.

Hours will now be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.

Isabella County

4855 E. Bluegrass Road
Mt. Pleasant, Mich. 48858

Midland County

Carpenter Street School
1407 W. Carpenter St.
Midland, Mich. 48640

FEMA specialists are in the DRCs to answer your questions about how to register for federal disaster assistance, explain what's happening with your application and give tips on how you can get help for damage your insurance doesn't cover.

Representatives of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) are also in DRCs to provide information and answer questions about SBA low-interest disaster assistance loans to help homeowners, renters, businesses and certain private nonprofits recover.

The deadline to register for FEMA disaster assistance is Oct. 2, 2017.

###

FEMA's mission is to support our citizens and first responders to ensure that as a nation we work together to build, sustain, and improve our capability to prepare for, protect against, respond to, recover from, and mitigate all hazards.
