As with any school or entity that works with children, any reported incident is taken seriously and investigated thoroughly from all aspects. The safety and well-being of our Tribal youth is our foremost concern and your leadership will make it a priority to ensure that this matter is dealt with appropriately. To make any statement prior to the completion of an investigation would be irresponsible on our part until such a time that the Tribal Police and Tribal Administration complete their work on the alleged incident.

Please contact Erik Rodriguez, Interim Public Relations Director for questions or more information at (989) 775-4076 or at erodriguez@sagchip.org
