

Birch bark Quill boxes

Collection Showing

Saturday,
May 11, 2019
10am - 3pm

Birch bark quill boxes are unique to North America and directly associated with the Great Lakes Anishinabek. It is an art form of object embellishment using the dyed and undyed quills of the porcupine in elaborate designs.

Birch bark quill boxes continue to be recognized as a living art form that is being revitalized throughout tribal communities and practiced by many.

Saturday, May 11, 2019
10am - 3pm,

join William Johnson, Ziibiwing's Curator,
as he hosts the opening of this special Collection Showing.

Free & Open to the Public

Artwork will remain on display through Saturday, May 18, 2019

ZIIBIWING CENTER
of Anishinabe Culture & Lifeways

THE MIDWEST'S PREMIER AMERICAN INDIAN MUSEUM
6650 EAST BROADWAY, MT. PLEASANT, MICHIGAN 48858
989.775.4750 • WWW.SAGCHIP.ORG/ZIIBIWING