

Birch bark Quill boxes

Collection Showing

Tuesday, May 11, 2021

thru

Saturday,
May 15, 2021
10am - 3pm

Birch bark quill boxes are unique to North America and directly associated with the Great Lakes Anishinabek. It is an art form of object embellishment using the dyed and undyed quills of the porcupine in elaborate designs.

Free & Open to the Public

Birch bark quill boxes continue to be recognized as a living art form that is being revitalized throughout Tribal communities and practiced by many.

ZIIBIWING CENTER
of Anishinabe Culture & Lifeways

THE MIDWEST'S PREMIER AMERICAN INDIAN MUSEUM
6650 EAST BROADWAY, MT. PLEASANT, MICHIGAN 48858
989.775.4750 • WWW.SAGCHIP.ORG/ZIIBIWING