

On November 13, 2014, Raymond Cadotte, Visitor Services Representative at the Ziiibiwing Center, received an Appreciation Award. Ray was a Guest Speaker for the Hart-Dole-Inouye Federal Center 2014 Native American Heritage Month program.

In addition to the award, Ray received a Proclamation signed by Deborah G. Owens, Mayor of the City of Battle Creek, Michigan, whereby the month of November, 2014 was proclaimed Native American Heritage Month. Citizens were urged to “recognize and support the ideals of human dignity and equal opportunity to which this Nation is committed and which we celebrate during this month.”
