This 4-day workshop will teach the art and culture of Black Ash basket making to adults. Black Ash basket making is being threatened by the Emerald Ash Borer. The Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan is hosting this workshop as an adult training and demonstration of this precious art form to ensure the continuation of future basket makers for the next generation.

This program is being funded by the Saginaw Chippewa Planning Department, through a BIA Self-Determination Emerald Ash Borer grant for, "Education & Outreach Demonstration for Basket Makers".
