"Those rocks are natural like that. No one carved them. That one up on the Cass River, we call that the Nanabush Rock. The ol' timers said that's the Indian Creation. That's natural ... no one carved it. But that rock used to be bigger, it's going down. It's sinkin'. They used to have ceremonies there once a year. No one goes now, that's why it's sinkin'. We should have a ceremony there. No one carved that stone ... no one ... 'cept maybe ... Nanabush."
