INDIGENOUS PEOPLE'S ARTISTIC MERIT (IPAM)

AWARDS

The Ziibiwing Center of Anishinabe Culture & Lifeways will present the Indigenous Peoples Artistic Merit (IPAM) Awards on Saturday, June 17, 2023 at the Ziibiwing Center. The IPAM Awards were created to promote, support and perpetuate North American Indian art and to provide a platform for preservation and transmission.

Minnie Jackson Lifetime Achievement Award

$1,000.00

Minnie Jackson (1911-2011) was a renowned basket maker from the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan. Known for her strawberry baskets, she made baskets all her life, taught the tradition to community members, and is remembered as a role model of cultural wisdom.

The Minnie Jackson Lifetime Achievement Award will go to an individual artist who has demonstrated a lifetime of traditional art perpetuation. They have been a continually practicing artist for a minimum of 30 years. Traditional art forms include beadwork, quillwork, pottery, sculpture, baskets, and diversified art forms.

Daniel "Gomez" Mena Master/Apprentice Fellowship

$1,000.00

Daniel "Gomez" Mena (1954-2007) was a renowned stone sculptor from the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan who worked as a stone sculptor for 20 years. He was also well known for his mentoring.

The Daniel "Gomez" Mena Master/Apprentice Fellowship will be given to a North American Indian traditional or contemporary Master Artist that is committed to working with an apprentice for one year.

Ziibiwing Center Ashenigewin (Giving Back) Award

$1,000.00

The Ziibiwing Center Ashenigewin Award will be given to an individual or family that demonstrate a maturity in their traditional or contemporary art field. The recipient of this award will have given substantial multi-generational community transmission of their artistic lifeways through donations, teaching, and mentoring.
