

Ziibiwing Gift Shop

The Ziibiwing Gift Shop is a unique and important component of the distinctive treasure that is the Ziibiwing Center. Here you can find an assortment of items that range from beautiful Native American art & jewelry, a wonderful array of cultural books for Anishinabek children, artisans and distinguished thinkers alike to candy bars and soda, toys and quirky miscellany, clothing, and home decor items. In addition to the wonderful items are the awesome sales. Every year, to celebrate Ziibiwing's birthday, there is a sale event that is not to be missed. This year we will celebrate Ziibiwing's 15th Birthday! The sale event will take place on Thursday and Friday, May 2nd and 3rd, 2019 from 10am to 6pm. Plus, during the year there are sales that pop up, unadvertised, and for a short time only. Like today, for instance. There is a sale table with items at 50% off! The items on the table are also being changed frequently so savers - keep your eyes open. The only thing better than a surprise is a surprise sale!!

Check out this Valentine's Day Special

Al Waynee Wood Sculptures

Saturday, February 2, 2019 • 10am - 3pm

Artwork will remain on display through Saturday, February 16, 2019

Mr. Al Waynee is a Member of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan. He started carving in 2008 when a friend in Florida asked him if he wanted a hobby - and he has been carving ever since!

He enjoys transforming an ordinary piece of wood into something fun and different. Mr. Waynee continues to improve, learning new techniques and ways to paint his creations. His family and friends are the lucky recipients of his art. Mr. Waynee has experimented with other carving mediums, including stone, but wood is his medium of choice.

This collection of sculptures is on short term loan from Mr. Waynee. It showcases his extraordinary woodcarving and painting skills, as well as the artistic expression he has developed and his obvious love for this hobby.

On Saturday, February 2, 2019 from 10am to 3pm, meet the artist, Al Waynee, who will join William Johnson, Ziibiwing Center's Curator, as he hosts the opening of this very special Collection Showing.
