Saginaw Chippewa Tribal Police takes part in multi-jurisdictional investigation

(Mt. Pleasant, MI.) November 6, 2022 – On Saturday, November 5, 2022 at 1830 hours, the Saginaw Chippewa Tribal Police took part in an investigation with all local law enforcement agencies to identify parents of the children left at a local hospital. Confirming leads led the investigation to a residence within the boundaries of the Isabella Indian Reservation. There a deceased adult female was discovered by officers.

A multi-jurisdictional investigation led to the development of a suspect. An arrest warrant was obtained, and the suspect was taken into custody in Saginaw, Michigan. This is an ongoing investigation, but the suspect is in custody and being held on a homicide charge.

The Saginaw Chippewa Tribal Police were assisted by the FBI, BIA, ATF, Michigan State Police, Isabella County Sheriff's Office, Mt. Pleasant City Police Department, MINT, and MMR.
