Instructor: Kera Gross, SCTC Student

Kera Gross is an indigenous beadwork artist from Little Traverse Bay Bands Tribe (LTBB). A dedicated beadwork artist whose vibrant creations are deeply rooted in cultural expression and storytelling. As a full-time college student, Kera balances her academic journey with a passion for teaching and preserving traditional art forms. Specializing in beaded graduation caps, Kera shares not only the techniques of her craft but also the cultural significance behind every design. Her workshops are a celebration of identity, resilience, and creativity, welcoming students of all skill levels to learn, create, and connect.

Through her art and instruction, Kera is not only reclaiming and revitalizing her heritage but also empowering others to proudly carry their culture across the graduation stage and beyond.
