

Appliqué PANELS

WITH WENONAH BIRD

Monday, March 23 – Thursday, March 26, 2026

5:30-8:30 p.m. | Ziibiwing Center

- 10 spots available
- Must be intermediate sewer
- Potluck style meal

To register, please contact:

Marcella Hadden at MLhadden@sagchip.org

Class taught by Wenonah Bird

As a member of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan, located in Mount Pleasant MI, Wenonah has carried on her sewing skills that were passed down from her mother and grandmother's teachings through beading, quilting, and other Anishinabek arts. Today, she continues her skills working from home and shares her artwork and skills with others through her many travels throughout Canada and the US.

ZIIBIWING CENTER
of Anishinabe Culture & Lifeways

THE MIDWEST'S PREMIER AMERICAN INDIAN MUSEUM
6650 EAST BROADWAY, MT. PLEASANT, MICHIGAN 48858
989.775.4750 • WWW.SAGCHIP.ORG/ZIIBIWING